The motion papers shall describe (a) the nature of the materials or proceedings at issue, (b) the legitimate private or public interests which warrant the relief sought, (c) the clearly defined and serious injury that would result if the relief sought is not granted, and (d) why a less restrictive alternative to the relief sought is not available. Proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law shall be submitted with the motion papers in the proposed order required by (c)(5) below. If the information required in this section is not within the knowledge of the movant, supplemental motion papers in support of the motion may be filed by a party, individual or entity having such knowledge not later than fourteen (14) days after the filing of the motion.

(3) Any materials deemed confidential by a party or parties and submitted with regard to a motion to seal or otherwise restrict public access shall be filed electronically under the designation "confidential materials" and shall remain sealed until such time as the motion is decided, subject to Local Civil Rule 72.1(c)(1)(C). * * *

(b) The time within which to answer or reply may, before its first expiration and with or without notice, be extended once for a period not to exceed 14 days on order granted by the Clerk. Any other proposed extension of time must be presented to the Court for consideration.

Civ. Rule 7.1 APPLICATION AND MOTION PRACTICE

* * *

(d) Filing Motion Papers

(3) If the moving party chooses to file papers in reply, those papers including a reply brief specifying the motion day on the cover page, with proof or acknowledgment of service thereof on all other parties, must be filed with the Clerk at least seven days prior to the motion day. No reply papers shall be filed on a motion for reconsideration pursuant to L.Civ.R. 7.1(i) or on a cross-motion, unless the Court otherwise orders.

(5) The motion day of a dispositive motion may be adjourned once by a party opposing the motion, without the consent of the moving party, the Court, or the Clerk. To obtain the automatic extension a party must file with the Clerk, and serve upon all other parties, a letter invoking the provisions of this rule before the date on which opposition papers would otherwise be due under L.Civ.R. 7.1(d)(2). That letter shall set forth the new motion day, which shall be the next available motion day following the originally noticed date. All parties opposing the motion shall file their opposition papers at least 14 days prior to the new motion day, and the moving party shall file its reply papers, if any, at least seven days prior to the new motion day. No other extension of the time limits provided in L.Civ.R. 7.1(d)(2) and (3) shall be permitted without an Order of the Court, and any application for such an extension shall advise the Court whether other parties have or have not consented to such request.

(e) Preparation of Order

All filed motions shall have annexed thereto a proposed order. If the proposed order does not adequately reflect the Court's ruling, the prevailing party, if directed by the Court, shall submit an order within seven days of the ruling on the motion on notice to all other parties. Unless the Court otherwise directs, if no specific objection to that order with reasons therefor is received within seven days of its receipt by the Court, the order may be signed. If such an objection is made, the matter may be listed for hearing at the discretion of the Court.

(i) Motions for Reconsideration

A motion for reconsideration shall be served and filed within 14 days after the entry of the order or judgment on the original motion by the Judge or Magistrate Judge. A brief setting forth concisely the matter or controlling decisions which the party believes the Judge or Magistrate Judge has overlooked shall be filed with the Notice of Motion.

Civ. Rule 8.1 PLEADING DAMAGES

A pleading which sets forth a claim for relief in the nature of unliquidated money damages shall state in the ad damnum clause a demand for damages generally without specifying the amount. Within 14 days after service of a written request by another party, the party filing the pleading shall furnish the requesting party with a statement of the amount of damages claimed, which statement shall not be filed except on court order. Nothing stated herein shall relieve the party filing the pleading of the necessity of alleging the requisite jurisdictional amount in controversy, where applicable.

APPENDIX Q. GUIDELINES FOR MEDIATION

II. Mediator's Responsibility for Managing the Mediation Process

* * *

B. The function of the mediator is to serve as a neutral facilitator of settlement. The mediator is expected to conduct the mediation process in an expeditious manner. Neither the parties nor the mediator may disclose any information presented during the mediation process without consent. The only exception to this rule of confidentiality is when disclosure may be necessary to advise the compliance judge of an apparent failure to participate in the mediation process.

Mediation, unlike arbitration, is not intended to be a fact-finding or decision-making process. Instead, the focus of mediation is to resolve the dispute between the parties. Resolution of that dispute may lead the parties and the mediator to explore questions of law or issues of fact beyond the scope of the pleadings or to reach settlements which go beyond the relief sought in the pleadings. Furthermore, a mediation may include the submission of “claims, counterclaims, defenses and other material issues” to the mediator for his or her evaluation as a neutral at any point in the mediation, should the parties so agree. See L. Civ. R. 301.1 (e)(4). The purpose of neutral evaluation by the mediator is to secure his or her views on material issues which, often because of contrary positions strongly held by the parties, are erecting barriers to a negotiated settlement. Such a neutral evaluation may result in an advisory opinion as to the strengths and /or weaknesses of a party’s legal or factual position on an issue so presented to the mediator. It is anticipated that, upon completion of any such evaluation and its assessment by the parties, either the action will settle or the mediation will resume to its conclusion. In short, mediation is a flexible process which may be molded to fit the needs of a particular case. No specific procedures have been set for the mediator to follow. Instead, the intent of L.Civ.R. 301.1 is for the mediator to assist the parties to reach a negotiated settlement by conducting meetings, defining issues, defusing emotion and suggesting possible ways to resolve the dispute.

IV. Compensation of Mediators

A. A mediator who is selected by the court or by the parties from the panel of mediators designated by the Chief Judge shall be compensated at the rate of $300.00 an hour. The time incurred by a mediator in reviewing the submissions of the parties shall be included in the calculation of his or her time. The compensation, which shall be paid equally by the parties, may not be varied by the consent of the parties.

APPENDIX S. DISCOVERY CONFIDENTIALITY ORDER

8. If counsel for a party receiving documents or information designated as Confidential or Attorneys’ Eyes Only hereunder objects to such designation of any or all of such items, the following procedure shall apply:

(a) Counsel for the objecting party shall serve on the designating party or third party a written objection to such designation, which shall describe with particularity the documents or information in question and shall state the grounds for objection. Counsel for the designating party or third party shall respond in writing to such objection within 14 days, and shall state with particularity the grounds for asserting that the document or information is Confidential or Attorneys’

Eyes Only. If no timely written response is made to the objection, the challenged designation will be deemed to be void. If the designating party or nonparty makes a timely response to such objection asserting the propriety of the designation, counsel shall then confer in good faith in an effort to resolve the dispute.

It is FURTHER ORDERED these amendments are effective this date.
